

SPANISH COORDINATOR REPORT PANEL 61 AWSC Jan 28 -Jan 30, 2022

Dear Al-Anon Family ,

Beginning a new year with HOPE and very happy for the opportunity to continue serving with love. I have lived miracles experiences and shared my phrase of live; The Gratitude is the door of my abundance.

What is happening at the Area Spanish groups?

District 3 has welcomed a new group, SAN MARCO in Jacksonville . Every Friday at 8.00pm (face to face) I will plan to visit soon this group.

District 6 : Senderos de de Amor , It is temporarily suspended because the church close the room for Covid prevention. It group is searching other location for meetings.

District 8 has 2 Spanish group in Tampa: “Un Día al a Vez” (face to face meeting) every Tuesday from 8.15pm to 9.30pm with average attendance 15 people. And Saturday 8.00pm to 9.30pm. On January 15th they celebrated in Unity Thanksgiving and Christmas after the regular meeting.

The second group “Buscando la Serenidad’ have hybrid meting each Wednesday from 7pm to 8.00pm with an attendance of around 6 people.

District 10 has 2 group “ Solo por Hoy” with phone meetings every Monday at 7.00 pm

“Una Luz en el Camino” in Orlando (face to face meeting) On November 17 was the last meeting with the Gratitude Celebration. The group decided close temporarily and with the funds group completed donation for the district and area.

The Area webpage has a page in SPANISH, where members can find the updates about Spanish groups and the last magazines: Al-Anon se Enfrenta al Alcoholismo and EnAccion . Also the link for registration to The Area Convention 2022 . Thank you Bob for your support and service.
