New Daily Reader

We are awaiting a title and release date.

We did it! We have submitted enough sharings to complete the New Daily Reader (still working title).

We are always in need of sharings for The Forum and for Al-Anon Faces Alcoholism.

Many thanks to all that helped make our new book possible.

Hope ebook

Hope for Today (eB-27), can now be purchased as an ebook!

It's the latest, but these are also available:

Alateen Hope for Children of Alcoholics (eB-3), the Forum magazine

Courage to Change (eB-16), Having Had A Spiritual Awakening (eB-25), and

How Al-Anon Works for Friends and Families of Alcoholics (eB-22)

Member's

WSO invites you to write on many different topics. There are currently 12 different topics listed that you can read and feel connected with.

Sept's topic was: "How has detachment helped with family and work relationships?"

The first person to come tell me October's topic question gets a 2020 Convention Summary. (That's on the website too)

There are blogs for each of our legacies as well. A great place to share your experience with any of the steps, traditions and concepts. Some are awaiting their first share, maybe it's yours!

These things can be shared on several platforms too.

Check out the blog today and often: Member Blog

Website: al-anon.org

There is reading and writing available all over the Al-Anon website.

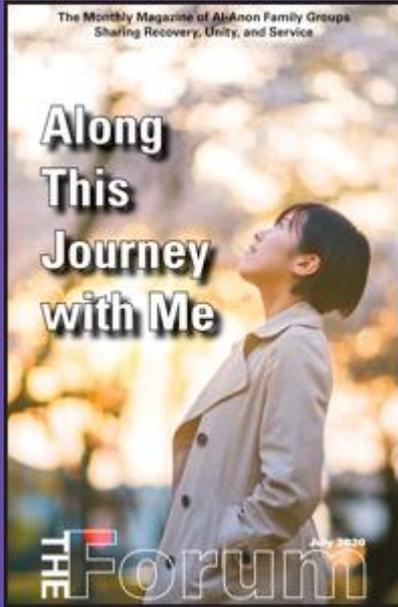

Please next time you need to browse or want some uplifting information

Go check it out: <https://al-anon.org>

I invite you to try the newcomer tab, and share what you find with someone else.

When I do, I feel instantly connected and in touch with others who understand the me inside.

The Forum

You may host a writing workshop at home or on a platform like this! You may even use the same Power Point presentation found on the Literature page of our Area website: <https://www.afgarea9.org/literature-coordinator.html>

It's now very easy to submit your sharing online at the WSO website: Send Your Sharing

If you do not have a subscription, why not? You may have your very own copy each month for only $11.00 per year! Maybe a gift? It comes in a plain envelope, very anonymous.

CAL Corner

Thanks for all the support in assisting the Forum in representing our many pieces of literature. Please share your recovery story and how these pieces of literature helped you.

Alateen Talk

This amazing publication is great at letting our teens know they are not alone. It's been redesigned and a whole year's subscription is only $2.50!

This could help them feel more connected. Get yours here: Alateen Talk Subscription Order Form

Timeline

Pat A. has updated her illustrious timeline from P55. Complete with most all pictures of the literature in order of its release, a wonderful collection! Please check it out on the Area website, she has agreed to place it on the Literature page.

Thank you!

I greatly appreciate the opportunity to have served as the Literature Coordinator for panel 58.

I am extremely amazed at the wonderful growth and support I've received during the panel, and throughout the time I've been attending. These gifts continue to unfold.

I am a proud and happy member of Al-Anon, I thank those who came before for being here and all those yet to come. Al-Anon has brought me a family of love, recovery and acceptance.
